Hints from the "Heathen Chinee."

The Chinese maintain that good government consists in the advancement of men of merit and talent only to the rank and power conferred by official posts.

Confucius said: "Good government depends on obtaining proper men." "Put down the vicious and promote the upright, and the people will obey." "You must study to court and search for men of merit; you must even make advances to them. I say you must court and search for men of merit, for if you act the same with all the world men of merit will not come near you at all." Eight hundred years ago a distinguished scholar informed the Emperor that there was a great mixture among the officers of his empire; that men of virtue and merit were sadly mixed and confounded in the crowd; the good and the bad were on a footing. This he recommended could be corrected in this way: "Lay yourself out to draw from the crowd those that are virtuous and more than ordinarily capable, and although they may have heretofore displeased you, advance them to the highest posts."

A civil service reform like that would be hailed with joy by the people of this country from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

"A MAN of cullah, sah, and a politishun by trade, lately from de Souf," who rejoiceth in the patronymic of "John Nicodemus," addresses a letter to the New York World, in which he says:

"As de Republicans is done gone up and busted, I want to know if you Democrats want to hire a good likely cullahed pusson in a politikal kapacity of any kind. If so, I'm open to offers. I was formerly a member of de Souf Caroliny Legislater when said State was ruled by our race. I kin give references as to karacter as sich, and beg to offer my friends, ex-Guvener Chamberlin and Mr. Kimpton, also ex-Congressman Bowen. Me and him has frequently slept together and in the same bed—political and otherwise.

The Republicans is now gittin' rather vulgah and down in de heel, and I for one has resolved to leave 'em.

References exchanged. Please let me hear from you, as my board is now unpaid several days and I want a job. Political principals is subordinate and inferior to beef and bred."

Nicodemus enunciates a platform, which has some advocates down this way, when he declares that "political principals is subordinate and inferior to beef and bred!" It is a homely compendium of the rule of action of certain individuals we wot of. Jo Turner used to speak of men, who went over to the Radical party, as having been "hit in the belly with a pone of bread." John evidently borrowed his idea from Josiah, and both of them are now illustrating the truth of their aphorisms.

HERE, now, is a nice morsel for the "bloody shirt wavers" to roll under their tongues. A telegram to the New York Tribune, (of all papers in the world,) under date of Sept. 22, from New Orleans, says: "To-day the Democratic Convention at Natchitoches assembled to nominate candidates. The negroes, under the leadership of Blunt, Breda and others, came in force, making incendiary speeches, threatening the convention and causing its adjournment. Considerable excitement has been created in consequence. Armed bodies of negroes flocked into town. Blunt was arrested."

A DELEGATION of New Hampshire Republicans arrived in Washington last Saturday, for the purpose of raising funds, if they can, and of securing aid from the Campaign Committee in conducting the fight in that State. They are a little afraid that, unless they "take every precaution and work every district thoroughly," the result in New Hampshire may be somewhat similar to that in Maine.

AMONG the deaths by yellow fever, at Memphis, on Tuesday, we observe that of Mrs. B. K. Pullen. This lady, we presume, was the wife of Benjamin K. Pullen, a native of this county and for many years a citizen of Raleigh.

The Pope Gratified.

By Cable to the News.

ROME, Sept. 25.—The Pope, on receiving a number of Piedmontese pilgrims, expressed pleasure that the season for pilgrimages had returned, and that the first to arrive were citizens of Italy, a country destined to preserve within its bosom the see of the Vicar of Christ. He said efforts are making to root out the faith, but the people of Italy would not allow it to be taken from them. He was confident that the Catholics of Italy would continue their allegiance to the Church, the more because the difficulties of the Pontiff's position are becoming more serious. The devoted sons of the Church ought to devise some just and legitimate means for ameliorating this situation.

Toronto Provincial Exhibition.

TORONTO, Sept. 25.—Lord Dufferin open the Provincial Exhibition yesterday, with an eloquent address, which he said was the last public speech he would make in this country.

British Indian Military Movements.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A Calcutta dispatch says orders have been issued to concentrate towards the frontier, with the view to early opperations if necesary. It is semi-officially stated that the Ameer of Cabul has allowed these letters from the Viceroy of India to remain unanswered.

Fire at Marion, Alabama.

SELMA, ALA., Sept. 25.—A fire in Marion, Alabama, last night, destroyed eleven business houses. The loss is over $70,000.

THE YELLOW DEATH.

More Cheering Signs—The Spread of the Plague in Small Towns.

CANTON, MISS., Sept. 25.—Two deaths and 21 cases.

Democratic Convention at Syracuse.

By Telegraph to the News.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 25.—The Democratic Convention met here to-day. A. P. Laning was chosen temporary chairman.

When the Secretary began to call the roll a scene of great disorder ensued, the question being on the admission of contesting delegates.

John Kelly, of New York, said: "Year after year Tammany has come here and met with contestants, notwithstanding decisions that we are regular." He wanted the question settled now and forever. He hoped the chair would allow delegates from New York and King's county to vote.

The chair stated he had no other means of knowing who were members than the roll submitted him by the State Committee. He therefore, was obliged to take the roll and had directed the Secretary to call the county of Kings.

Mr. Weed called attention to the fact that notwithstanding the chair had the roll of the State Committee, notice had been given that New York and Kings county were contested.

The chair directed the Secretary to call Kings county to vote on the question.

Weed appealed from this decision. The uproar was tremendous. Peckham, Weed and others filled the aisles, shouting and threatening. The Mayor and police entered the hall and insisted that the members take their seats. Some resisted, and every one was on his feet, while the hall resounded with the confusion. Mr. Weed had a half dozen police about him, trying to get him off the seat he had mounted, but he defied them. The police were finally withdrawn to the front of the stage.

The resolution, which was the cause of the uproar, was finally carried.

The Silent Stranger.

Boston Courier.

A stranger sat in a corner of the car hence to New York, in easy attitude, his feet upon a large black trunk. The gentlemanly conductor, going his rounds, at the first station politely informed the stranger that the trunk must be put in the baggage car. To which the stranger nothing repsed. At the second station the displeaaed conductor, more decidedly, told the stranger that he must put the trunk in the baggage car. To which the stranger nothing replied. At the third station the vexed conductor more imperatively told the stranger that he must put the trunk in the baggage car or it would be put off the train. To which the stranger nothing replied. At the fourth station the irate conductor had the trunk put off and left. At the fifth station the mollified conductor, addressing the stranger, begged him to remember that he had but done what his duty required, and that he had only done it after repeated warnings, and that it was solely the stranger's fault. To which the stranger laconically replied: "Don't care; 'tain't my trunk!"

A Turco-Austrian Alliance.

By Cable to the News.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25.—It is considered certain that an Austro-Turkish convention is in a fair way for speedy signature.

It is reported that the Porte is determined to send a sufficient force to subdue the Albanians and permit the execution of that part of the Berlin treaty relating to Montenegro.

The Convention at Boston.

By Telegraph to the News.

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Pursuant to the call made at the broken-up Convention at Worcester, the Democrats met at old Fanuil Hall, in this city, to-day. After the regular processes of organization, General John S. Whitney was appointed chairman, and addressed the Convention. At the close of his speech, Josiah G. Abbott was nominated for Governor, by acclamation; for Lieutenant Governor, William R. Plunkett; Secretary of State, Henry C. Dewing; Treasurer and Receiver, General David N. Skillings; Auditor, Jno. E. Fitzgerald; Attorney General, General Richard Olney.

Reuben Noble, of Westfield, made a motion that the Democratic Committees throughout the State call conventions and caucuses, and to address this call to all Democrats who propose to support the candidates of this convention. When any such committee opposes the nominations of this convention, members of the several council, or Senatorial and district conventions shall be authorized to exclude such members from the convention.

After considerable discussion, the resolution was indefinitely postponed.

The platform declares that the constant policy of the Republican party throughout the United States has had a tendency to centralize the power of the Government in Washington. We demand the overthrow of monopolies, and the enactment of and execution of such laws as shall protect the rights of labor as well of those of capital, not discriminating against either, but framed for the mutual benefit of both. That the scheme, instituted and carried into effect by the Republican party, of providing a paper currency not redeemable in coin, and compelling people to receive the same in payment of debts, is without authority of the constitution. Congress has no power to make anything unless it be gold and silver legal tender. Whatever power it may have to authorize the issue notes to circulate as money, whether issued directly from the Treasury or indirectly through banks, should be exercised only and subject to certain restrictions. That no Executive office of the Government should have the discretion to enlarge or contract the volume of the currency. That the total amount of currency authorized should be fixed by law and that whatever that amount, it should be one that shall at every moment, be redeemed in coin. That all coins of the same denomination shall be as nearly as possible of equal values. That whatever currency is issued by the Government shall be receivable by the Government in payment of public dues at its face value.

Affairs in the East.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25.—The Russian headquarters are removed to Adrianople.

A similar despatch confirms the report of the concentration of troops on the Afghan frontier, of the dissolution of the British mission, and of the departure of General Sir Neville Chamberlain for Madras.

The despatch also says: "Glolam Hussein Khan, who went to Cabul with the Viceroy's letter, has been recalled. A force under Gen. Roberts has been despatched to the Korram Valley. A column, numbering 6,000, is ordered to assemble at Mooltan. Eight thousand go to Quetta.

The Genealogies of Genius.

The death of the Countess of Ariosto, the last descendant of Ariosto, the great Italian poet of the Sixteenth Century, which has just taken place at Ravenna, adds another instance to the general rule that genius is not hereditary and that the genealogies of genius are not immortal. It is indeed seldom that the name and blood of a poet are preserved so long upon the earth as was that of the famous author of "Orlando Furioso." As a general law, the brighter the luminary of intellect the more utter is its extinction. How few of the descendants of men of genius can boast that their great forefathers "came over with William the Conqueror." We find the same lands in the hands of the same family for hundreds of years; commercial success is often hereditary, and if one may so apply the remarks of the gravedigger in "Hamlet," "your tanner shall last you" a great deal longer than your philosopher or poet. There are, of course, exceptions to this. The younger Pitt inherited the full mental vigor of the Earl of Chatham. Hartly Coleridge, but for the unfortunate propensity to drink, might have been almost as great a man as his father. The present Governor General of India has shown much of the literary ability of his father, the inexhaustible novelist. One of Thackeray's daughters has shown considerable literary talent, and is a pleasing and popular story writer. But these exceptions do not invalidate the rule. Scott has left no direct representative, and the same is true of Keats, Byron and Burns. Charles Dickens' eldest son carries on his father's periodical, but he has none of the genius of his father. Sam. Johnson and Oliver Goldsmith have left no descendants. The same is true of Shakespeare and Milton, of Descartes and Spinoza, of Goethe and Schiller, and Rousseau and Voltaire, of David Hume and Sir Isaac Newton.

NOTES.

A subscriber wrote to a journal to make some inquires about the next world's fair, whereupon the wicked editor replied that he was under the impression that the next world wouldn't have any fair.

A bald-head is said to be an evidence of early piety, but it requires a great deal of that or some other sort of piety to keep a bald-headed man in a good humor when a blue bottle fly persists in dancing a hornpipe on the place where the hair ought to grow.—Breakfast Table.

Edison is experimenting on the waves of light, and hopes very soon to perfect a machine that will enable you to see a man a hundred miles away. In case the man in question has an account against you, this will give you plenty of time to get under the bed and out of harm's away before he arrives.—Danbury News.

A little five-year old was sitting with his mother in this city, a few days ago, playing at her feet, when suddenly he looked up into her face and said:

"Mother, do you know what I want to be when I grow up?"

She shook her head.

"Well, when I grow up I want to be either a Greenbacker or one of those long-haired men who cure corns and have their pictures in the paper."

Our clergyman says that he once visited a lady at his parish, who had just lost her husband, in order to offer her consolation, and upon her earnest inquiries as to the reunion of families in Heaven, he strongly asserted his belief in the fact. When she asked with anxiety whether any time must elapse before friends would be able to find each other in the next world, he emphatically said: "No! they will be united at once.'. He was thinking of the happiness of being able to offer the relief of such a faith, when she broke in upon his meditation sadly: "Well, his first wife has got him, then, by this time!"

THE SECREST TRIAL.

Conclusion of the Seven Days Work--Conviction of the Accused---Jury Unanimous on First Ballot---Sentenced to Hang---Prisoner Appeals---Apparent Indifference of the Accused---Arguments of Able Counsel.

Special Correspondence of the News.

MARION, Sept. 24.

Argument in the Secrest case closed with Solicitor Adams, at eight o'clock last night. His Honor, Judge Gudger, proceeded immediately to charge the jury. The notes of testimony by the bench were full, and rehearsing the immense volume of this, the charge was elaborate, able and impartial. His Honor occupied two hours and three quarters. The jury took the case at a quarter to eleven. By consent of counsel the jurors retired to their quarters and took supper before proceeding to make up and return their verdict. At twelve o'clock the Judge was sent for to receive the verdict. The jury was polled, and each juror in answer to his name responded GUILTY.

The verdict was recorded, prisoner remanded to custody of the Sheriff, and court adjourned to half past eight this morning.

MOTIONS BY DEFENCE—THE SENTENCE.

Reassembling, counsel for defence, Hon. Burgess S. Gaither and Col. Geo. N. Folk, moved for arrest of judgment, alleging defect in bill of indictment. Motion overruled. Defence then moved for a new trial. This motion was also refused. Judge Gudger, in a feeling and impressive manner, then pronounced his first death sentence, the prisoner, Hoke C. Secrest, to be hanged on Friday the fifteenth of November, by the Sheriff of McDowell county. Counsel for the prisoner then appealed to the Supreme court, which, meeting in January, brings the case back here to next March court, for new trial, if granted, or should the court below be affirmed, then the Judge riding the circuit for Spring Term will re-sentence the condemned man. There is little probability of a new trial being granted. And should it be, it will not much help the accused. The State would present even a stronger case the next time, while the defence would necessarily be even weaker than now.

SINGULAR UNANIMITY OF OPINION.

Not one single spectator or attendant on the court has expressed the slightest doubt of the guilt of the accused. The verdict of the jury is universally approved. On the very first ballot by the jury conviction was unanimous, and in conversation with jurors since, it is found that upon the evidence, before argument of counsel or charge of the Judge, every juror was fully satisfied of the guilt of Secrest. He had able counsel and every defence possible was made. On both sides the trial was conducted with great ability, and in no particular would Solicitor Adams take advantage, or Judge Gudger permit the slightest unfairness to the accused. It is one of the most impartial investigations on record, and Judge, jury, Solicitor and counsel on both sides have done their whole duty in vindication of the majesty of the law of the great State of North Carolina. No more interesting or remarkable capital case was ever determined in the State, or one in which the chain of circumstantial evidence was more complete—every circumstance proving concurrent and excluding every reasonable hypothesis of the innocence of the accused.

STOLID INDIFFERENCE OF THE PRISONER.

The condemned man, Secrest, received the verdict of the jury and underwent the sentence of the court with an indifference amounting to contempt. Throughout the trial he has manifested little concern, and when the remains of the woman and child were produced in court, he shared none of the profound sensation produced in court. The recital of none of the evidence revealing the enormity of his crime seemed to effect Hoke C. Secrest, not in the least. But his was not the look or bearing of innocence. It indicated the dogged determination of a fiend caught in crime to face it out.

ARGUMENTS OF COUNSEL.

No attempt could do pretended justice to the counsel in the case, in a newspaper letter, and so no effort is made to follow them, or present any portion of their language. John Gray Bynum, Esq., for the State, opened the argument. He took up the evidence as the State unfolded it, beginning with the journey of the parties from Union county on the last day of February, 1877. He followed them to Newton, where Secrest and the woman were married. He then came along with them to the house of Alonzo Cline, in Catawba, from whence, according to the theory of the State, the woman and child were not seen alive save by the prisoner. He then took up the prisoner at D. B. Mull's, where he turned up alone on Wednesday the 7th of March, and followed him back into Union. His conduct there in appropriating the woman's property and making contradictory statements as to her whereabouts was dwelt upon. He then came up to the grave in the edge of Burke—exhibited the articles of clothing identified as belonging to the missing woman and child, their hair, and the bones of a grown person and a child, insisting that the woman was dead, that these were her remains, and that every circumstance unmistakably showed that Hoke C. Secrest was the murderer.

David A. Covington, Esq., of Union, member-elect to the House of Representatives, followed Mr. Bynum in reply. He made an able speech in defence of his client. He admitted everything proven down to the leaving of Alonzo Cline's on the 6th of March, 1877, but then insisted on the testimony of Mrs. Ellen Medlin, now of Stanley, who swore that on that day, Secrest drove into Hickory, where she was, with a lady and child, whom he said was his wife and step-daughter, and put them on the train for Statesville, where she told Mrs. Alexander on the third she wanted to visit as the place where she had gone to school. He insisted that these were not the remains of Maggie Secrest and child. That it was not a grave, but a place of deposit of the bones and patches of cloth offered in evidence. That from the sixth of March, 1877, to the date of the finding in January, 1878, there could have been no such decomposition of bodies as here shown. That thus interred, two bodies, or one, would have offended the whole neighborhood, attracted the hogs, dogs, buzzards and other animals, which by their noise and howls of delight over their horrid feast would have attracted the attention of people living within four hundred yards, and passers-by on the roads, ninety yards distant and upward. He argued that Secrest could not have driven into the woods by night, and that he could not have committed the deed undiscovered by day. Leaving Cline's at noon, he asked where was the prisoner until nightfall. That he could not, unaided, have dug the hole or managed the bodies. This, in brief, was the theory of the defence as opposed to that of the State. For the absence of the woman, whom Mr. Bynum had asked why they did not produce, and thus by the living evidence of his wife the prisoner relieve himself, Mr. Covington replied that the defendant had lost all control of her movements; had been deprived of her society and could not compel her attendance here. But that she was living they offered the evidence of five or six witnesses who had seen her and the child together in Charlotte in December and January last.

Hon. Burgess S. Gaither followed in an elaborate argument in support of the theory set up by the defense and against the hypotheses of the State that the woman and child were dead and that Secrest killed them. His analysis of the evidence produced by the State from the grave was very able and skillful.

John F. Murrill, Esq., of Hickory, followed in reply to Mr. Covington and Colonel Gaither, and with the incontrovertible facts before him demolished their theories and demonstrated that the witnesses for the defence were not to be believed in anything they had sworn.

Colonel George N. Folk closed for the defence. He ably reviewed every line of argument for the State; took up the evidence offered by the State and attempted to refute all the facts and theories of the prosecution. He read from the authorities respecting circumstantial testimony, and recited some of the awful mistakes made in receiving it. He closed with a strong and eloquent appeal for the prisoner, his youth, his aged father and mother and brothers and sisters.

Solicitor Adams closed the case. He assumed that Maggie Stevenson or Secrest is dead and that the defendant killed her. He argued from the evidences found at the grave—the grave itself, its seclusion and the secret and unusual manner of burial, contrary to all the forms and manner of civilized christian burial. He took up the fact that these were human bones—those of a woman and child. He took up the remnants of clothing and other articles found in and around the grave; the child's copper tipped shoes, the stocking, the red dress with black stripes, the black cloth gaiter, the snuff box, the selvidge ruffle bornet, the dress which Mrs. Clark brought from Georgia, black fringe, like which the lady said her mother gave her, and the balmoral skirt make of a bed blanket, like which the lady was known to wear. These, together with some others, and the hair of both woman and child, all of which was identified as having belonged to Mrs. Stevenson, the Solicitor argued, showed that the woman was dead, and every circumstance of line of travel, the disappearance of the trio from Cline's and re-appearance alone of the prisoner next day, and his subsequent actions and conduct, plainly showed that Secrest had killed her. From the line of evidence, against and for the prisoner, already stretched out in these letters, the reader can, with the points presented above, form a pretty accurate idea of what must have been the argument of the able lawyers engaged in the conduct of the case. This is not the proper place to draw any distinction between the counsel or to their relative merits, for each and every one came fully up to the requirement of the case in the parts assigned them, and three to three, the prosecution and defence were about evenly matched. It will gratify eastern readers to know that Mr. John F. Murrill, late of Onslow, acquitted himself with great ability, and that to his efforts was due the working up of the case at the beginning. Mr. Covingtou was the youngest counsellor, being but twenty-four, while Solicitor Adams is only twenty-seven. The opening speech by Mr. Bynum was not excelled by any. Colonels Gaither and Folk, of course, are known in the front rank of the North Carolina bar. The bearing of the Judge was most admirable throughout, and too much cannot be said for the jury, who were in the box seven days, while the officers of the Court were at all times alive to their duties. Officers of the Court were specially attentive and kind to members of the press.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Notwithstanding the indifference of the prisoner, the father is crushed. Save a lingering hope in the Supreme Court, his heart is broken. Evidently, from appearances, and by report a good man, he has had the sympathy of the entire Court and spectators. The brothers of the defendant are men of good character, as proven in Court, and feel keenly the position of their brother. Mr. B. C. Secrest inadvertently swore that he had seen Maggie Stevenson in Monroe the Fall before he said he saw her in Charlotte in December. He meant to say the Fall of 1876, he says, and in fact corrected himself on the stand, but the mis-statement went into the reports and notes of the trial and was commented on by counsel. He requested the press to make correction for him. During the trial several members of the press were in attendance. Mr. J. F. Tomlinson, of the Hickory Press, who took charge of this matter at the outset and prosecuted it when no one seemed disposed to ferret out the murder, Mr. Crowson, of the Burke Blade, Mr. J. B. Hill, of the Raleigh Observer. Mr. Tomlinson is getting up a pamphlet presenting a full history of the Secrest murder and trial, and those desiring it may communicate with him at Hickory.

Gold from the Land of Midian.

As we are on the question of money we may say there is native gold in Egypt. Capt. Burton, by command of the khedive, recently visited the land of Midian, to report upon its resources. He brought back 25 tons of specimens, including all the valuable metals and a variety of relics from the 32 ruined cities which still exist in the land. Evidences of ancient mining operations were everywhere met with, and gold was found in quantities. The khedive intends to work his new property through European management. The land of Midian is a wonderful territory, and when one hears of the ancient mines which are spread over the country, with their shafts and their furnaces, the towns of workmen, and the cities of mine owners, one begins to understand why "all King Solomon's drinking-vessels were of gold,"

Letter from Henderson County ---Mountain Scenery---Telephonic Concert.

Correspondence of the News

HENDERSONVILLE, Sept. 21.

I think our little village worthy, in every way, a place in your columns, and inasmuch as you have requested a correspondent from this place, I, with pleasure, give you a few items this week.

The constant travel from Asheville and Warm Springs, via Spartanburg, gives the stage line a plenty to do; crowded to their utmost capacity, they pass each day, groaning often under that peculiar feature of female vanity, the "Saratoga Log Cabin," but the merry faces that we get a glimpse of, indicate a well-spent summer. For grandeur of scenery, they have left too soon. Our autumns are grand beyond description. The gay paraphernalia of Autumn is one of peculiar beauty. I have often wished for a description, from the pen of Tennyson, of our purple sunsets, bathed as they are in the rich golden rays of the setting sun. When I reach some fine expanse and take a survey of the brilliant foliage, that goes to make up the autumnal garb of our mountains, it is then I exclaim with the gifted Tennyson, "I would that my tongue could utter the thoughts that arise in me."

It was our good fortune to hear a Telephonic concert for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers on Wednesday evening last. It was a decided success. It was gotten up by the ladies. The Telephonic arrangement was tendered to the ladies by our talented and energetic townsman, H G Ewert. The Hendersonville Band and the ladies who sang were at his residence, and the audience at the court house, a distance of half a mile. They could hear the cheering distinctly after each piece through the room when everything was quiet. Button-hole bouquets were sold, having been arranged by Mrs. Boaner, and brought something over six dollars. Thus we are taught not to despise the day of small things. There will be a collection taken up in the churches on Sunday to be added to this concert fund. IRIS.

Cherokee Court--Murder Trial.

Correspondence of the News.

MURPHY, Sept. 20, 1878.

Our Superior Court for Cherokee opened on the 9th inst, and did not adjourn until court being continued over on the trial of Osborn L. Keith and Gabriel P. Keith for the murder of James L. Jenkins, on the 3rd of August last.

The prosecution on the part of the State, was conducted by G. S. Furgeson, Solicitor, assisted by Axley, Rolen, Elias and W. B. Furgeson. The prisoners were defended by Maj. Marcus Erwin and J. W. Cooper. After a trial of four days the jury returned a verdict of acquittal as to G. P. Keith and a verdict of guilty of manslaughter as to Osborn L. Keith. Sentence, five years imprisonment. Many witnesses were examined in the trial. During the first week Phillip Palmer was tried for the murder of Bartlett Jobson and acquitted. The Solictor, Ferguson, John Rolen and J. W. Cooper for the prosecution, and T. F. & A. T. Davidson for the prisoner.

His Hon. A. C. Avery Judge presided. Our people are well pleased with our new judge. C.

The Death List.

The weekly report of Surgeon-General Woodworth, issued on Saturday last, announces the total mortality from yellow fever in the cities principally affected by the epidemic, up to that date:

New Orleans,	2,470
Baton Rouge, La.,	42
Plaquemine, La.,	37
Pattersonville, La.,	13
Morgan City, La.,	21
Port Eads, La.,	10
Delhi, La.,	6
Memphis, Tenn.,	2,273
Chattanooga, Tenn.,	2
Grenada, Miss.,	273
Holly Springs, Miss.,	93
Vicksburg, Miss.,	743
Canton, Miss.,	94
Port Gibson, Miss.,	96
Hernando, Miss.,	8
Ocean Springs, Miss.,	12
Terry, Miss.,	9
Greenville, Miss.,	133
Lake, Miss.,	21
Brownsville, Texas,	44
Hickman, Ky.,	79
Louisville, Ky.,	26
Gallipolis, Ohio,	14
Cincinnati, Ohio,	13
St. Louis, Mo,	10
Chicago,	1
Cairo, Ill.,	4
Mobile,	5
Key West,	5
Total,	6,557

There have been a number of instances of a few deaths in several small places. The number of cases at New Orleans up to the present time has been 8,050. At Vicksburg it has been over 3,000. In Memphis, as far as can be ascertained, about 6,800 people have been taken with the fever.

A young gallant, who of couse parted his hair in the middle, recently at a hotel table passed the syrup to a young lady opposite, saying in his most captivating tone: "Sweets to the sweet." She immediately handed him the vegetable dish, remarking: "Beets to the beat." Strange to say the smile faded from that young man's face.

There is a large demand for silver dollars from the South to pay cotton pickers, the negroes preferring them to any other kind of money. The demand for silver is less than the coinage, and the Treasury is not able to circulate the amount coined.

Governor Houston, of Alabama, has appointed October 3d a day of humiliation and prayer to God that the pestilence may abate in the infected region, and that other States and communities may be spared.

Builders' Hardware.

We are prepared to fill orders for locks, hinges, screws, nails, sash springs and fasteners, and all other requisites in that line, bought from manufacturers and sold at lowest rates. Owing to the great variety of goods, and the frequent changes in prices, we find it impracticable to issue a price list, but shall be pleased to give you quotations on any kind of hardware you may desire to know the price of, or you may send us your orders with the assurance that they will be filled at the lowest rates. Letter from Eufaula, Alabama.

EUFAULA, ALA., May 21st, 1877.

Messrs. Landrum & Litchford, Abingdon, Va.:

GENTLEMEN—My wife is using your "Iron and Alum Mass" for chronic indigestion, with very happy results. She is now on her third bottle. I am so much pleased with its effects on her that I have recommended its use to a relative who is somewhat similarly affected, and herewith enclose you P. O. order for $—, to purchase more of the Mass. I may hope that you will give me the same discount that is allowed the trade. Very truly,

JNO. D. ROQUEMORE,
Attorney at Law.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural results. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles, to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. Aug. 6—d & w l y e o w. *

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton in Raleigh are rapidly increasing, and their growth is due to the energy and judgement exercised by commission merchants. Messrs A C Sanders & Co. have been in the commission business, and are known as prompt and reliable commission mer, chants, who do only a commission business. Their charges are as low as any.

It Might Have Been.

When taking a retrospection of our past lives, how often does conscience whisper to broken spirits and wounded hearts the sad, sad words, "It might have been?" Thus it may be with the sufferer who endures the agonies of hemorrhoids, or piles, and heeds not the counsel to try Barham's Infallible Pile Cure, which is warranted to speedily and permanently cure this distressing disease. Manufactured by the Barham Pile Cure Co., Durham, N. C. 1w

North Carolina in the 45th Congress.

We had occasion, some days since, in speaking of the past record of North Carolina, to express the opinion that, although she, in common with the other States of the South, had been denied, of late years, much participation in the Executive or Judicial councils and patronage of the government, her voice and weight in the Legislative departments had been both heard and felt. We can recall but few positions, within the gift of the National Administrations, since the close of the war, requiring duties outside of the State, which any of her sons have been called to fill, and these, of course, have been conferred upon Republican partisans. Judge Settle was sent as Minister to Peru, but we are not aware that, in that capacity, he had any opportunity to do more than draw the handseme salary attached to the office. He has since been made a Judge of the District Court for Florida, but we have no means of knowing how he has acquitted himself in that position. Mr. Samuel F. Phillips has received the honorable appointment of Solicitor General, and, it is due to justice and fairness to say, has brought to the discharge of the duties of that high office eminent legal ability and dignity of character and deportment.

The stand, however, which our Representatives,—the Representatives of the people,—have taken in the Legislative councils of the country, is creditable alike to the State and to themselves. That their merits have been recognized and their worth and usefulness appreciated is a matter for congratulation and pride, and is evidenced by a few plain facts. And as illustrative of our assertion we turn to the records of the present,—the Forty-fifth-Congress. Premising that the highest recognition of capacity and standing of a member of Congress is usually exhibited by his allotment to service on the Committees, we note these facts:

In the Senate, although an arbitrary Radical majority was chary of conferring honors of the sort upon Democrats, we find that Senator Merrimon was upon four important Committees, viz: On Privileges and Elections, on the District of Columbia, on Rules, and on Examination of the several branches of the Civil Service; and that Senator Ransom, also, was upon three equally prominent Committees, viz: On Commerce, on Railroads, and on the Library.

In the House, Maj. Yeates was on the highly important Committee on Banking and Currency and on the Committee on Expenditures on Public Buildings.

Col. Waddell was chairman of one of the most laborious and responsible Committees of the House,—that on Post Offices and Post Roads.

Mr. Davis was one of the most indefatigable members of the Committee on Claims, which has probably as large and intricate a business brought before it as any Committee of Congress, and was, also, a member of the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Gen. Scales was Chairman of the Committee on Indian Affairs, and, as such, had in charge the valuable reforms looking to the transfer of the Indian Bureau from the Interior Department, under whose management gross corruptions and abuses sprang up, to that of War. He was also on the Committee on Militia.

Col. Steele, though a new member, was placed on the Committee on Agriculture and Revolutionary Pensions.

Mr. Robbins was on the leading Committee on Ways and Means and on Expenditures in the Interior Department.

Gen. Vance was the tireless Chairman of the Committee on Patents and was also on the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures.

The writer hereof knows whereof he speaks, when he bears testimony to the ability, industry and fidelity which all of these gentlemen brought to the discharge of their respective duties. And though not given to "much speaking," they were all heard, and respectfully heard, upon one or the other of the various engrossing national topics that engaged the attention of Congress. The speeches, especially, of Mr. Davis on Claims against the Government, of Mr. Robbins on Revenue and Finance, of Col. Steele on kindred topics, of Gen. Scales on the transfer of the Indian Bureau, and of Gen. Vance on the abolition of the tax on State Banks, commanded the most flattering appreciation, and the two first named efforts have been utilized by the National Democratic Committee as campaign documents.

We repeat, therefore, that North Carolina has good reason to be proud of her fine representation in the present Congress. We trust that she may continue to be as efficiently, faithfully and honorably served in the future.

With the exception of Maj. Robbins, (whose retirement from the scenes of public usefulness, we trust, may be only temporary,) all the Democratic members of the existing delegation, as the fit reward of excellent service, have been nominated for re-election. We hope and believe that the popular verdict will ratify this endorsement. Of Col. Armfield, who has the nomination in the Seventh District, it is only necessary to say, that his high character and his useful labors in other fields are the best guarantees of his eminent fitness for the new sphere of duty to which he will be transferred.

The Canvass in this District.

We now have four candidates for Congress in this District, whose status and surroundings are well and completely defined, viz: The Hon. Joseph J. Davis, the nominee of the Democratic party of Principle and Reform; the Hon. Josiah Turner, the candidate of himself and of the Radical Executive Committee; Moses A. Bledsoe, a candidate subject to the decision of a proposed Radical Convention on the 1st of October, and Henry N. Brown, a Republican nondescript candidate, with Murray's Grammar and Whately's Logic annexed. It is thus manifest, at a glance, that the counsels of the enemy are mightily "mixed," and that their only possible hope or chance of success is in the concentration of the discordant elements upon some one of the three motley representatives of the party now in the field or upon some fourth man to be designated by the prospective Convention.

Henry N. Brown, the only consistent Republican of the remarkable trio, has no chance of either getting the nomination of the Convention or of being able, under any circumstances, to consolidate the Radical vote. It is no credit to his party that he, the only "fire-tried" Republican, as we have intimated, of the lot, should be regarded as a five-brand, whose eccentricities of conduct and expression remove him but one degree from lunacy.

Moses A. Bledsoe, though he may, and probably will, get the endorsement of a packed Convention, if such an assemblage can be brought together, cannot solidify the vote of "the party." He is a neophyte in the ranks, but a neophyte of such aggressiveness, that the former leaders, who see in him a formadable rival in the manipulation of the negroes, have no disposition to welcome him into the party. It was this feeling which led the white Radical chiefs hereabouts to oppose him in the late Senatorial race in this county, and it was the same feeling which failed to endorse him, instead of Turner, in the recent meeting of the Radical Executive Committee. The antagonism between him and the bosses of that committee will prevent him, in the event of his nomination by the proposed Convention, from receiving their support or that of their followers.

Josiah Turner, of course, has no chance of receiving the nomination of the Convention, as it is prompted mainly by opposition to him and by indignation at his endorsement by the proxies and substitutes. Nor could he secure, if so nominated, the undivided support of the party, as there are hundreds of Republicans in the District not so lost to all sense of self-respect and manhood as to vote for a man who has exhausted the vocabulary of vituperation towards them in the past, and the motives of whose present alliance with them are so patent and shameless.

The fact is, so far as Mr. Turner is concerned, that he must, ere this, have seen the utter folly of his aspirations for a seat in Congress and abandoned all idea of election. He must realize the fact that, in vulgar parlance, he has completely "played out," so far as his individual chances are concerned. Whatever his expectations may have been, based upon the anomalous condition of affairs in Orange during the legislative canvass, and upon the encouragement afforded him by the Radical Committee, he is not so blind as not to have been able to read the handwriting on the wall wherever he has been. We believe that his continued candidacy, persisted in in the hope of diverting some Democratic votes to himself, is inspired mainly by a vindictive desire to compass thereby, or in some way, the defeat of the Democratic nominee.

We say to our friends in the District that all they need is to stand firm. Wherever Mr. Davis has been, he has made the finest impression, he has reconciled conflicting feelings and won over the doubting, and he has discussed the issues of the day in a patriotic and statesmanlike manner. From the present stand-point, his election is assured. Every vote withheld from him by any Democrat, however well-meaning his supposed intentions, will simply be a vote thrown away. Let us endorse our standard-bearer, fellow-Democrats, by such a vote as will show our exalted appreciation of the man, and our high and profound sense of the necessity of the success of Democratic measures to the salvation of the country and the best welfare of the people !

THE Democratic plan of financial relief is to substitute untaxed and non-interest bearing legal tenders for national bank notes, the same to be issued directly by the government in sums adequate to the wants of trade, but interchangeable with gold and silver, and representing something of value; a paying off United States bonds not specifically declared payable in coin, in these notes; a repeal of the resumption act, and an opening of the markets of the world to our productions by a tariff for revenue only. In a word, the Democracy offers substantial relief, based on statesmanship and sound reason, making money easy and interest light, while carefully keeping a dollar at its true value of one hundred cents.

A FRIEND, just from Johnston, informs us that that county will give Mr. Davis a larger majority than ever before. The Democrats are nearly a unit in his support, while the Republicans of the county, white and black, are terribly demoralized and divided.

VEGETINE.
FOR EPILEPSY.

BARABOO, May 15, 1877

H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir,—My husband has had Epilepsy for the past fifteen years. The past winter his blood seemed to be in a bad condition, and seeing the good results from the use of Vegetine in others, felt anxious to try it. Has taken some six bottles, and the result has been, that he has had only ten fits in three months past; whereas, he was accustomed to having as many in two days at his worst, an effect that he did not expect. Am very anxious to have him continue the use some longer, and write you what terms, or what reduction you would make and send me one dozen bottles.

Very respectfully,
MRS. A. C. COLE,
Baraboo, Sauk Co., Wis.

Vegetine thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

Vegetine.

ST. VINCENT SCHOOL, TROY, N. Y., Oct. 5, 1871.

DR. STEVENS:
Dear Sir,—We are truly grateful for your generous donation of Vegetine received last evening. A lady has been using it here with much benefit to herself, who for years has been pronounced "broken down," "worn out," &c. Frequently she was disturbed in her sleep by a violent nervous twitching of a foot, or the face, or the whole body. By taking this Vegetine, she is enabled to sleep quietly, and her general health seems much improved, though she has a complication of chronic diseases to contend with. May God bless you for your charity to the orphans.

Respectfully and gratefully,
SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Harassing Dreams—An unnatural excitement of the brain and nervous system is the direct cause of sleeplessness, as also of harassing nocturnal dreams. Vegetine has a peculiarly soothing effect in all such cases, when taken just before going to bed

Vegetine

For all Ladies
WHO ARE SUFFERERS.

CINCINNATI, March 28, 1877.

MR. STEVENS:—
Dear Sir,—I have taken several bottles of your Vegetine for Female Weakness, and in justice to the medicine, and to all ladies who are sufferers from such complaints, I will recommend the Vegetine. I must say it has helped me very much: indeed, it is invaluable for such complaints

MARY E. MEREDITH,
160 Eastern Avenue.

FEMALE WEAKNESS—Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cleanses and cures ulceration, cures constipation, regulates the bowels; headache and pains in the back cease: in fact, there is no disease or complaint where the Vegetine gives so quick relief, and is so effective in its cure, as in what is termed Female Weakness. It has never failed in one instance.

HOME REMEDY.

THE MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!
A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY
CURE FOR SCROFULA.
FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction. While my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood, and probably for other diseases.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON,
Dear Madam, I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the Doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine appeared to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago the medicine gave out, and I was without several days, it then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.
For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in motion. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 100 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this. I rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141,
Fayetteville, N. C.

For my personal reliability I refer, by permission to Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D., North Carolina; Geo. A. Foote, M. D., Warren, Co.; Hons. S. J. Davis and C. M. Cooke, Franklin Co.
The above medicine is for sale by Pescud, Lee & Co., Wm. Simpson, and F. H. Heartt, Druggists Raleigh, N. C. or it may be ordered direct from me. For further information, enclose stamp for Circulars to Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 25.

For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, falling barometer, increasing southeast to southwest winds, warmer, cloudy or partly cloudy weather and occasional rains, followed in the lower Mississippi valley by cold northerly winds and rising barometer.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Messrs. Kingsley & Ashley are filling an order for desks for the colored graded school.

——The old post office building will be moved to-day. The old workshop and storehouse north of the new post office will also be removed.

——Yesterday was by far the busiest day of the season thus far. The streets were filled with people all the day, and the new stocks of goods in the stores found many inspectors and buyers.

——It is stated that some of the wealthiest citizens in the city have not listed a dollar of property this year. Some merchants have not made return of a dollar of purchases. The court house folks say they had better attend to this and save court expenses.

——The cotton market was again dull yesterday, owing the decline in New York. This weakened the market. The rate was 9½, while for fancy or selected grades ¼ more was paid. The receipts were about 316 bales.

——One of the most pleasing spectacles on Fayetteville street yesterday was a small negro from the country triumphantly bearing aloft an immense 'possum, whose caudal appendage was safely held by a split in a pole. Somehow the ideas of a darkey and 'possum cannot be disassociated.

Hebrew Religious Services.

Services during the holidays will be held at the residence of J. Jackson, Esq., commencing Friday evening at 6 o'clock, by order of the Committee of the Raleigh Hebrew Reform Union.

Diphtheria.

This dread disease is raging in a portion of the county south of this city. There have been two deaths of children, and the entire family, wife and children, of another citizen are severely attacked by the disease.

Personals.

Wm. B. Rodman, Jr., son of Judge Rodman, of Washington, N. C., passed through this city a few days since, on his way to Chapel Hill. He is said to be a young man of much promise, and unusually proficient in mathematics.

Reprieved For a Brief Space.

His Excellency Gov. Vance yesterday reprieved James Laxton, white, who was sentenced to be hanged to-morrow. His reprieve is for 30 days from yesterday. He was to be executed at Statesville.

Choice Land Near Mebanesville.

The land offered for sale near Mebanesville, affords a fine opportunity of settling in a locality very desirable on account of health, morals, and of getting free tuition in a school of the highest grade. See the advertisement.

Almost an Accident.

While Sidney Taylor and John Morgan, two negro boys, were playing with a revolver in a room over Whitehead's store, on Wilmington street, the weapon was accidently discharged, the ball narrowly missing Morgan and lodging in the door.

Convicts Gone West.

Yesterday twenty-three convicts were taken from the State Penitentiary and carried to Lenoir, where they will be set at work on the Chester and Lenoir Narrow-Gauge Railway. It is intended to hurry the work on this road as much as possible.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor Manly yesterday tried the case of two negroes who engaged in an affray on Wilmington street, thereby disturbing the peace and propriety of that charming throughfare. The names of these offenders were Dick Thompson and Ed. Smith, and they were fined $1 and costs each.

For the Sufferers.

Henry C. Fager, Esq., yesterday sent the Executive office $4.40, contributed by Charity Lodge, No. 5, A. F. & A. M., Windsor, N. C.

J. H. Hoffler, Esq., Secretary, sent $12, given by Safety Lodge, I. O. G. T., at Gatesville.

Both the above amounts were sent the Howards, at Holly Springs, Miss.

For the Penitentiary.

Sheriff D. A. Watson, of Bertie, has delivered to the Penitentiary authorities two negro convicts, both guilty of larceny. Their names are Ransom Roulhac, 7 years; and John Clark, 5 years.

Sheriff E. W. Deweese brought down from far-away Cherokee O. L. Keith, white, convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced to imprisonment for five years.

Post Office Notes.

There is a division of opinion as to the cutting down the trees in front of the post office. They should be spared. The city cannot afford to lose any of the shade trees which give the streets so pleasant an appearance.

The fence in front of the building was removed yesterday, and the old sidewalk, after so many years of disuse, is trodden once again. The removal of the fence adds greatly to the appearance of the building.

The sidewalk is soon to be flagged with heavy granite slabs, and a neat curbing will mark the line of the gutter.

The people will move in from the old to the new post office to-day. Postively the last time this season.

The Colored Minstrels.

The colered minstrels gave a performance at Metropolitan Hall, last evening, for the benefit of the Victor Fire company. The troupe are very clever performers, and their delineations of darkey life and their exceptionally fine rendition of popular melodies made the evening pass pleasantly to the audience.

The Oxford Orphans.

To-morrow evening a chapter of Orphans, from the Asylum at Oxford, will appear at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church. They will be in charge of the kind Principal of that Institution, Mr. Jack Mills. No charge is to be made for admission to the performance, and it is earnestly desired that all the people of the city who take any interest in that noble charity, the Oxford Asylum, and the little ones who but for its shelter would be homeless, will attend.

Vegetine.

This now celebrated invigorator has been before the public for years, and from the fact that it has grown steadily into popular favor, with a largely increasing demand, it may be inferred that the medicine possesses far more than ordinary merit. Mr. H. R. Stevens, of Boston, the proprietor, has amassed an immense fortune in the business, and is one of the largest advertisers in the country. The News makes its bow for a slice of the select pie.

Marriage Last Evening.

The first marriage in quite a time occurred at the Edenton Street Methodist Church last evening. That edifice was crowded with the usual throng, friends of the contracting parties, as well as curious spectators. The parties who took on the characters of man and wife were Capt. Louis H. Rean and Miss Lillian Scarlett, both residents of this city. There were six couples of attendants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Black, pastor of the church.

Grand Religious Rally.

The clans of the Primitive Baptist church are mustering in force at Pine Level, Johnston county, where to-morrow their association, which lasts three days, begins. Already an acre and a half of tents are up. Over 5000 persons will be present, probably more even than this great number. On Sunday a special train will leave this city, at 8 o'clock a. m., for Pine Level. The fare for the round trip is only $1. It will give a good opportunity to see this great body of believers in session.

Abstracts of Taxes.

The State Auditor yesterday received the following abstracts of listed taxables:

Alamance county, by T. G. McLean, Register of Deeds:

General Taxes,	2,984.12
Special "	3,035.73
School "	3,778.81

Glass Ball Shooting.

The following letter from Mr. N. W. West, of the firm of Julius Lewis & Co., explains itself:

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 26, 1878.

W. S. Primrose, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.:

DEAR SIR: We would like to place at your disposal one barrel of blue glass balls (about 350 balls) and one of Bogardus' improved traps, with the suggestion that you get up, at an early day, a shooting match for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers. Don't forget that the ladies are invited.

Yours, respectfully,
JULIUS LEWIS & Co.

Mr. Primrose states that the generous offer of Mr. West has been accepted, and the shooting has been set for next Wednesday. No admission fee will be paid, but each person will be charged fifty cents who shoots, and will be allowed at least 10 shots. The money will be donated to the yellow fever sufferers or to the Young Men's Christian Association. Get your guns ready, for an interesting time may be expected. Ladies are invited to attend.

Rosh Hashana, the Jewish New Year.

Friday evening, at sundown, begins the Jewish New Year, termed in Hebrew "Rosh Hashana." It is observed with solemn services by the people of that faith everywhere. During the period between sunset on Friday and the same time on Sunday, all business is suspended. The origin of the festival is given in Leviticus xxiii, the text reading: "And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying: Speak unto the children, saying: In the seventh month, in the first of the month, ye shall have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing trumpets, an holy convocation. Ye shall do no servile work." Though not one of those great festivals of the year on which the male population of Israel is commanded "to appear before the Lord," it is nevertheless considered to be one of the principal holidays of the Hebrews. The observance will last until Sunday when the sun sets. The blowing of trumpets, strictly enjoined to the congregation, is observed as of old, and the hearing of the sounds is obligatory on all Jews. With the festival of the New Year begins the annual era known as the "Ten days of Repentance," terminating on Sunday week by the greatest of holidays, "Yom Kippur." According to Jewish faith and tradition, on "Rosh Hashana" the creation of the world was completed; on that self-same day the sacrifice of Isaac by his father occurred; and again, on the anniversary of these events, the Messiah will come. The festival is sometimes called "Yom Hadin," or Day of Judgment; for it is a Rabbinical legend that on that day the Almighty reviews the career of every creature, meeting out its doom for the coming year. The ceremonies of the day are grand and impressive. At sundown the faithful assemble at the houses of worship and inaugurate the observance by solemn prayers and fast. They assemble on the following day at daybreak, and service is held until noon; the shofar, or trumpet, made of a ram's horn, being sounded, and the most orthodox Israelites refusing to partake of food until they have heard the reverberating but sacred sounds, which in time are to announce the Judgment Day is at hand. Genesis xxi and xxii, recording the birth and sacrifice of Isaac, and the first chapter of Samuel, will be recited.

The Next State Fair.

Donations to the North Carolina Agricultural Society, for the Eighteenth Annual Fair, October 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19th next, at Raleigh, N. C. [Acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.]

One selection revolving perch and other bird cages, being one each of styles Nos. 606, 608, 612, 80, 81 and 79, one each of styles Nos. 51, 66, 10, 41, 48, 9 and 77; two each of Nos. 62 and 39, and one peerless new style, $60.00, given by John C. Jewett & Sons, 86 92 Ellicott street, Buffalo, New York, manufacturers of refrigerators, coolers, filters, bird cages, and dealers in general house furnishing goods. These new styles of cages are made very attractive by the handsome work upon them, and the revolving perch renders the cage an object of great interest to those who have never seen them. It is said that the birds are stronger and healthier from the exercise they thus take.

One dozen roses, one dozen geraniums, one dozen coleus, $6.00, given by C. B. Fairchild, Raleigh, N. C. Prof. Fairchild is well known as the enterprising nurseryman and market gardener of this city. We are gratified to know that he will make a splendid exhibit of flowers and plants at the Fair. Mr. Fairchild writes us that he has already expended over a hundred dollars in making the necessary preparations for his exhibit at the Fair. Having had some experience, we can appreciate that fact, and hope that his enterprise may be duly rewarded. A vast amount of money goes out of the State for flowers, seeds, bulbs, &c.; far more than for fruit trees, and we doubt if annual purchases of live stock also can approach it. Home industry should be encouraged, especially when home grown plants are better for our climate. Let this money be kept at home.

One pair stone-fence game chickens, $5, given by Peter Jones, colored, Raleigh, N. C. Peter Jones is quite a fowl fancier, and is very proud of these chickens, as of the true old fashioned stone-fence stock, and he asks the privilege of following the fashion of the day, and making his humble donation for the Fair, which he says is such a blessing to the laboring classes in this community.

About Bank and Other Stocks.

Paragraph 6 of section 9 of the "machinery act" (chap. 155, laws of 1876-'77), makes it the duty of every cashier or treasurer of any bank, corporation or association to furnish a list of its stockholders resident in the several counties of this State, on the first day of June in each year, to the county commissioners of the county in which such stockholder resides. It is said that only one of the three banks of Raleigh has sent to the clerk of the commissioners this list. The decrease in the amount of bank stock given in this year, compared with that listed last year, is $160,265. This should not be. The State tax imposed upon shares of stock, and on the deposits of non-residents, is to be paid by the cashier directly to the public treasurer, and charged by such cashier against the individual stockholders; the county assesses against the stock only the taxes imposed by the State for school purposes, and those imposed for county purposes. But the shares of stock belonging to non-residents of this State, and the deposits of such non-residents, shall be assessed for taxation for support of school and county purposes in the county in which such bank is located, and shall be paid by the cashier of such bank or banking association. There was listed last year, in Wake, $224,055 of bank stock; this year only $63,790 The county school fund has decreased $452.71; the graded school fund for Raleigh district, shows a decrease of $618.51. There are many hundreds of children attending these schools, and those who are blessed with a sufficiency of this world's good should, with the payers of a poll tax, assist in keeping up the schools, with a full corps of teachers.

Get the Best.

This is a bit of good advice and may be followed to the letter by families and all wishing to purchase choice groceries at the most reasonable rates, by obtaining the same at the well stocked grocery store of J. P. Pritchard, Jr., Hillsboro Avenue and Salisbury street. *

Sure of Success.

One of the most varied and best selected stocks of dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, &c., is to be found at the new store of W. E. Dupree, in the Adams building, Martin street. A young man of enterprise and energy, he is determined to give customers good bargains. *

The General Depot.

For supplies of all kinds, from fine to heavy groceries, is the store of W. H. Dodd, corner Martin and Wilmington streets. In this large establishment is kept one of the largest, most complete and reasonably priced stocks ever shown in Raleigh. *

Sale and Board Stable.

Having this day sold our Livery and Omnibus line to O'Kelley & Baker, we will give our personal attention to the sale of horses and mules, and will keep a first class boarding stable. Our stables will be open day and night, and especial attention given to transcient and moathly bosrders!

Thankful for the patronage so liberally bestowed heretofore, we trust by strict attention, to merit a continuance of the same in our sale and boarding stables.

GEO. W. WYNNE & Co.

If you want clothing at wholesale or retail, buy it at Woollcott's Open Front Store, Wilmington street. He has the cheapest stock in the city. *

New Arrivals.

The first supply of new goods for Fall trade have arrived at Law's. New styles and patterns in Iron-stone, China and porcelain ware. Also, glass ware and house furnishing goods. We intend to carry a larger and more widely assorted stock this season than ever before. Law's China and Silver Warehouse, Raleigh, N. C. *

Bound to Please.

A look into the store of Latta & Myatt, on Martin street, convinces one that one of the choicest and most carefully chosen stocks of goods in this city is there kept. The prices are at bottom rates, and those wishing to make purchases in the way of general supplies can find no better place. *

To Carpenters and Builders.

If you are needing anything in the way of edge tools or builders hardware, of any kind, we would advise you to call at J. C. Brewster's hardware house, where you can find a splendid stock of goods in this line, and at prices to suit the scarcity of money. All tools sold are fully warranted. He will contract for roofing at prices which will enable you to put in your bids (where there is any tin work to be done) lower than ever, giving you an opportunity to use tin in place of shingles.

He uses nothing except the best material. J. C. BREWSTER,

Growth of Wheat.

Below is given a letter from one of the best farmers in this county or the State:

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, Sept. 20.

Messrs. Kelley, Purefoy & Brewer, GENTLEMEN:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effects of "Long's Prepared Chemicals" for wheat, I would state that I sowed a ten acre cotton lot in wheat last December, using the "chemicals" in conjunction with cotton seed as a fertilizer. The yield was 150½ bushels of wheat of excellent quality. The season here, as elsewhere in the State, was a very unfavorable one for wheat. Had the season been favorable I have no doubt but the yield would have been much greater. The wheat was sown the week before Christmas, rather late for the best results. I think much of the yield is to be attributed to the "Chemicals." I regard them an excellent fertilizer.

Yours truly,
P. H. MANGUM.

The firm above named keep full supplies of this valuable fertilizer, which they can furnish promptly at any point on the R. & G. Railway. *

Wheat Yield.

COMPANY SHOPS, N. C., September 3d, 1878.

Messrs. Boykin, Carmer & Co., Baltimore, Md.:

GENTS:—Send me three (3) tons "Home Fertilizer." The three tons I got of you last fall I put with 12 bushels of wheat in the drills from which I gathered 107½ bushels of good wheat. My neighbor, who says he has better land, sowed 35 bushels and gathered 84 bushels of wheat. My tenant says without the "Fertilizer" I would not have made 50 bushels.

Yours truly,
2t eod. W. H. TURRENTINE.

Store Closed.

My store will be closed from Friday evening at 6 o'clock until Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, September the 28th, 1878, on account of celebration of the Jewish New Year.

I therefore, request that my patrons will send in their orders at an early hour Friday, Sept. the 27th, 1878.
* M. GRAUSMAN.

Environed with Danger.

The dweller or temporary sojourner in a malarious region of country is environed with danger. Besides inhaling at every breath an atmosphere saturated with an infectious poison, he also drinks water which is in most instances likewise impregnated with the fever and ague breeding miasmata. If a bilious subject, deficient in stamina, or irregular in habit of body or digestion, his peril is much increased, as these abnormal conditions are extremely favorable to the contraction of malarial disease. But this danger may be safely encountered with the assistance of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which completely nullifies the atmospheric virus, and neutralizes the constituents of miasma tainted water. This deficient antidote to disease eradicates and prevents fevers of an intermittent and bilious remittent type, besides effecting a thorough and permanent reform of those enfeebled or irregular conditions of the system which invite not only malaria, but other diseases equally to be dreaded. sep24-6t

JONES' BAKING POWDER

FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding, it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, whose certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money of every consumer. It stands Unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better pure and more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD
IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.
YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR.
YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterate and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder, would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article throughout the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."
